Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17

Many of our loved ones who have passed on, have left memories of sacrifices which have not been forgotten by their families. These gifts of love are forever etched in our minds. Those of us who have been loved in this way recognize how fortunate we are. Jesus Christ has left us a sacrifice of His Love for His Church, first which is plainly clear to us, His Crucifixion at Golgotha. And secondly, in the mystery of Eucharist where we are nourished sacramentally with His Body and Blood. This is the new covenant established forever as a sign of inward grace of His Love for us for all ages to come. Corpus Christi is a celebration of this covenant.

Pray for the repose of the soul of Emily Willbur. Her funeral Mass was last Saturday at St. Cecilia's. Emily was an active parishioner in the 60's and 70's until she moved to Novato.

I will be out of the valley for the next three Sundays. Fr. Joe Richard has kindly accepted to say Sunday Masses at St. Cecilia's and St. Mary's. I will be at the Diocesan Study Week this week in Menlo Park, and will be in France the next two weeks.

The parish is planning a trip for youth to Santa Cruz Boardwalk, July 19th and 20th. Denise Bohman has suggested an overnight for those who wish to spend more time in Santa Cruz. Any parishioners who want to help in this adventure, let me know when I return from France. I will take all the help I can get.

Carmelite Monastery, Annual Novena to Our Lady of Mount Carmel, June 8th to 16th, 7:30pm in the monastery chapel, 530 Blackstone Dr., San Rafael. All are welcome.

Home Masses for whoever wishes to offer their homes during the summer months. Parish picnic, Sunday, August 12th.

The Catholic social teaching on immigration: Nations have their rights to control their borders. Immigrants must be respected like all persons for their inherent human dignity. They have equal rights to basic human needs.
