Gospel: Luke 20:27-38

The Jewish tradition is not accepting of bachelorism or celibacy. A Jewish man is expected to marry as being a Jewish man. If he did not, it would be conceived by Jewish minds as a man who had not fully developed as a human being that he would not want a wife in his life, or fulfill religious responsibilities.

A widow or widower is also expected to remarry if in good health, such is the story of this widow. The Sadducee is not interested in the marriage dilemma of the widow. He is making fun of those who believe in after life just as the widow's predicament is preposterous — so is belief in an after life.

We welcome to our sacred ground, Nov. 18th, 4 p.m., faith communities to St. Cecilia's for the Interfaith Service 2007. Potluck to follow celebration. Service usually takes 45 min.

Parishioners of St. Cecilia's and St. Mary's who are attending are asked to bring desserts for the after contributions to the table.
