Gospel: Matthew 2:1-12

The magi represent the wise of this world; in astrology, wise of the other world; and in magic, wise of the awe and wonder of both worlds. The three wise men become the earliest of converts to Christ, setting aside their old wisdoms and taking on Gospel truths as magi. They represent the emergence of Christianity as a Universal faith. Today, there is not a corner of the world where the Gospel of Christ has not been made known.

Cia Donahue cooked the first meals for seniors on Wednesday, December 26. It is a great experience to know that you are helping these shut-ins by providing a home-cooked meal. Anybody interested in being a part of a team to cook nine dinners for the elderly in the Valley the 4th Wednesday of every month, contact Cia or Fr. O'.

St. Cecilia's & St. Mary's Pastoral Council meeting, this Wednesday, January 9th, 7 p.m. at the Rectory.

The Padre Pio statue was a gift to St. Cecilia Parish by the Waltanger Family. The statue itself came from Italy. The glove that covered St. Padre Pio's stigma touched this statue before being sent to the State. Devotion to Padre Pio, every 2nd Saturday of the month, 10 a.m. St. Cecilia Church.

Every Wednesday after 8 a.m. Mass, adoration of the Blessed Sacrament will be exposed at St. Cecilia Church. Anyone is invited to attend exposition.

Some parishes have a motto that represents the spirit of the parish. St. Cecilia's & St. Mary's don't have a motto. Think about it and maybe we can create one for our parishes. If parishioners have ideas, we will share them in the bulletin.
