Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

“Well, that’s all over,” Caiaphas and his friends must have thought. How wrong they were. It was only the beginning. A new faith, Church was born. Christ died as a man on the cross, but He Rose as an intermediary between man and God. His words are as relevant today as 2000 years ago.

From the Pew

Thanks to George Kerbs, the newest sacramental in the church at St. Cecilia's is a small cabinet by Our Lady's statue, containing the three sacramental oils:

- ✦ Oils of Baptism: Initiation into the life of the Church
- ✦ Oils of Confirmation: Commitment to the Church and Service
- ✦ Oils for Sick & Dying: Healing and Preparation for Eternal Life.

Mike Stephens' Mom, Delia Stephens, passed away this past weekend. Mike was in Ireland at the time vacationing. He returned immediately.

Gerri Miller spoke to our parish during the Lenten Series. "Day for Darfur", April 9th, the Olympic Torch passes through San Francisco. This is an opportunity to tell China directly: Stop Sponsoring Genocide in Darfur. For more information and to sign up to attend the event, visit: <http://www.darfursf.org>. For community bus ride from Marin City to the event in San Francisco, email buses@darfursf.org, or call 650-218-7028.

Fr. O' will be taking the Easter Break, April 14th to 19th.
