Gospel: Matthew 7:21-27

The firmest foundation for living is the teachings of Jesus Christ. If Jesus had never risen from the dead, His teachings would still have lived on in memory such is the depth and breath of its Divinity, its Sacred Power.

Though it had not been written in parchment for 45 years later, His word and His message was never forgotten or erased from His followers' memory. It became the rock to their lives, to working practices, fellowship, community, life decisions, living life, seeing life, thinking about life, death.

Christ word became the rock of their lives.

A warm welcome to Danna Florenco, baptized at St. Cecilia Church last Saturday, followed by a festive celebration with families and friends.
