Gospel: Matthew 21:33-43

There have been many take over of landowners' estates in history, Communism probably the largest ever of private ownership. This story by Jesus isn't concerned about property rights, or land deeds etc. But the rejection of the father's son ultimately to end as this story portrays, murder. Ultimate rejection is to silence the voice in the hope its message dies or fades away. Sometimes this does not happen, on the contrary, the reverse occurs, the message gets stronger. Jesus message, commonly known as Gospel, has lived on. It is an eternal word, no wonder he added, "The stone which the builders rejected became the cornerstone."

Peter drew great interest in further studying Saint Paul. St. Cecilia's and St. Mary's would like to thank Geraldine & Barbara as the Welcoming Party, Joyce for loaning Fr. Peter her truck, Bonnie for taking care of the raccoons & flowers, Kathy for organizing the Farewell Brunch, Larry for driving Fr. Peter to the airport, ..., and to all the parishioners who extended their invitations to Fr. Peter showing him around Point Reyes, Muir Woods, beaches, hiking trails, and all the attractions in the Bay Area.
