Gospel: John 1:6-8, 19-28

If as with Herod, we fill our lives with things, and again with things. If we consider ourselves too important that we forgot our lives are linked to every moment. When do we take the time to make the long, slow journey across the burning desert as did the Magi, or sit and watch the stars as did the shepherds, or look upon the Christ as did Mary? For each of us, there is a desert to travel, a star to discover, and a being within ourselves to bring to life.

On the twelfth day of Christmas my true love gave to me

Last week to sign up for those interested in the Parish Death Valley Trip in mid-February. Let Fr. O' know. If we do not have enough for this trip, we will try another one and take the Death Valley Trip in another year.

The Archdiocese initiated the Parish/School Financial Review Program requiring a review at least every three years. This year, our parishes have been selected for review. The CPA firm charges $3,000 for the audit, St. Cecilia & St. Mary is to be audited before Christmas. This sum is excessive for our small parishes, so I have to have a 2nd Collection next Sunday to alleviate these costs.

Kids Night. Saturday, December 20th, 5:30 p.m. at St. Cecilia's Parish Hall. Miracle on 34th Street. To sign up, call Margaret Farley, 488-0122.

Soups for Seniors once a month. Sign up: Cia Donahue or Kathy Drady.

St. Cecilia's Food Bank. Every week in the month of December.

Motto: "United in the Spirit of Faith, Service and Love", by Mary McCaffrey.

2nd Collection this week is for Priests Retirement Fund.

A cell phone that was loaned to Fr. Peter during the summer has been returned to me but I do not know whose cell phone it belongs to. Contact Fr. O'.
