Gospel: Mark 16:15-20

The Paschal Mystery is concluded with the Ascension, Christ's return to His Heavenly Father. His life, suffering, death and resurrection, there is nothing more now to do. The church can now preserve His Gospel for future generations and so Christ gloriously ascends to His Heavenly Father. In His Ascension, Christ is the mediator between God and man.

In the News

The thorny issues of Stem Cell research, the Obama Administration de-emphasizes moral concern in favor of a scientific approach. It responds to man's desire for health and longer life with no reference to underlying moral principles. While this in itself is presented as a good, it causes man to "aim lower" at given truths.
