Rublev's icon of the trinity

The creed only has a short statement about the Holy Spirit, "The Lord the Giver of Life who Proceeds from the Father and the Son, That's it. Rublev's famous icon of the trinity depicts the Holy Spirit on the right of his painting in colors of blue and green. Blue for divinity and green for life. When Jesus died he gave up his spirit breath but he promised us through the sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation he would breathe on us and 'Receive the Holy Spirit'. We are a people endowed with the gifts of the Holy Spirit.

Thanks to all the volunteers who helped with the garden & church cleanup.

Congratulations to Jim & Elizabeth Bitter

Media's Facts & Fictions

"Angels and Demons" need clarification, those who have watched the movie. Copernicus was not murdered, he died of a stroke at the age of 70. He never was at odds with church authorities. The Illuminati were a late 18th Century secret society, who did not exist during Copernicus or Galileo or Bernini times. They were founded two centuries later as political free thinkers with no special interest in the sciences or Arts.
