Gospel: Mark 4: 35-41

The boat on stormy seas could easily be an obvious metaphor for the plight of the church in recent times. Declining attendance, financial and sexual scandals. A share of what can be perceived by the hierarchy as mutinous dissent or the irreverence of authority, apart from those who look forward to the day when the church will have sunk without trace...

The Words of Christ still resonate.

Quiet now
Be calm
Why are you so frightened
Have Faith

Church History Last month, the Franciscans celebrated the 800th year of the founding of their order by Saint Francis. Over 2,000 friars descended on Assisi and Rome to celebrate their life and works. It all began when Pope Innocent III had a dream of the Lateran Basilica, tilting dangerously as though falling, and a young man in a brown habit steadying the building with his shoulder. Francis requesting a Papal audience, the pope recognized this raggedy youth as the man in his dream and approved his order. And so began one of the most famous and beloved orders in all of Christianity.
