Gospel: Mark 5:21-43

The hands of Jesus touched lovingly, lifted up and restored life. Now we are his hands. If I were to look at my hands, what would I know about them. Are they like a fist cold, violent, grasping, greedy, pampered, selfish? Or do I see hands that are open, welcoming, caring, giving, playful, creative, relaxing, hardworking?

He has no hands now but ours.

From the Pew

This Sunday, June 28th, the first Summer Picnic & BBQ at St. Cecilia's, 2 p.m. Hamburgers and hot-dogs supplied. Bring side dishes and beverages.

Next Sunday, July 5th, Parish Bicycling Outing, 1 p.m. starting at St. Cecilia's.

"2009 Upcoming Events" Poster is on the bulletin board of the church. Mark your calendar. Come and support these parish events.

This week, 2nd Collection is for Peter's Pence (Holy Father).

Fr. Piotr (Peter) Zelazko sends his greetings to all our parishioners of St. Cecilia & St. Mary's. He expressed how much he enjoyed the meeting and talks and life in West Marin. Unfortunately this summer, he will not be able to come to the States during the time when Fr. O' is visiting his family in Ireland. Fr. Peter will be staying in Jerusalem to continue his study to advance to one level higher for the next academic year. We wish him all the best in his academics. For our parish cruise to the Holy Land in October, perhaps we will try to meet up with Fr. Peter if he could join us for the day while we are in Jerusalem.

Save Camp Taylor Park. According to the park ranger, Samuel P. Taylor State Park is on the list of possible closure because of the budget cut. When asked how we can help, the ranger recommended that we upload photos of people using the state park, as well as signing the petitions (available online).

Jeanne Cole, our parishioner at St. Mary's was featured in the San Francisco Chronicle article "Inspired by a jar of honey" (Datebook, 6-12-2009, Section F. <http://www.sfgate.com>). For more info, check out Jeanne's website at www.holyorders.biz.
