Gospel: Mark 6:1-6

Nazareth, never mentioned in the Old Testament, the migrant workers town, a place with no sacred associations ... What a surprising choice as hometown of the Messiah. Who would have anticipated that the Son of God would serve his time at a carpenters work bench. Why be surprised then if he wants to set up home with me.

George demonstrating his barbequing skill.

Cows gathered around the church partaking in the wedding celebration at St. Mary's last Sunday

Universal Church

The Catholic World is largely organized around the parish, from the Greek para oikos, which means "nearby houses". In the early church, before churches were built, Eucharist was celebrated in houses.
