Gospel: John 6:51-58

Normally when we dine around the table with friends, there are many tables at work though we sit at one table beautifully attired. There is a table of welcomes, appetizers and drinks. The movement to the dining table, the conversations, stories, gossips. Then to the table to eat, the best food of the evening. Finally to the table of retiring, port and brandy, where we begin the process of saying farewell.

The Eucharist has a similar process. Are you able to perceive the process within the Eucharistic table?

From the Pew

St. Cecilia's/St. Mary's Parish Picnic and Barbeque last Sunday celebrated the conclusion of the debt of St. Cecilia to the Archdiocese. The event paid tribute to all the parishioners & friends from our Valley community who supported the cause. A crystal cross and a plaque were given to Pat & Bill White in honor of their great contribution to the remodeling of St. Cecilia Church. It was a wonderful event enjoyed by all. Special thanks to the Lagunitas Brewing Company for donating beer for the function, and CYO for sponsoring the picnic. We thanked John Beckerley and his team for an excellent job organizing everything. We also welcomed the visitors from St. Pius, Redwood City and from St. Brigid, San Francisco.

St. Mary's welcomes Erika Anna Keitner into our Eucharistic community today.

Whale Watching, Wednesday, August 19th, a 5-hour trip, 8 a.m. leaves San Francisco from the Marina, goes out to the Farollones. Brendan Laing works as a crew member on board the boat. Thanks to Brendan, our parish enjoys a 50% discount of the ticket price. Let Fr. O' know if anyone is interested to join the trip.
