Gospel: Luke 4:21-30

Two crowds of opinions gather in their interpretation of Jesus. One is favorable and enthusiastic, the other is reactionary and violent. Sacred Scripture still has this effect on peoples lives depending on our reception or anti-reception to God's word. We either like it and respect it, or fear it and reject it.

From the Pew

St. Cecilia/St. Mary Town Hall Meeting is today after the 11 a.m. Mass at the parish hall. This is our annual once a year meeting to discuss parish life. Bring some fingerfodds and drink to share.

Let us keep in our prayers, Patricia Lawson, now home after several weeks in hospital; and Mary Ann Kolanoski.

Due to safety concerns especially when storm season approaches, the pine tree by the rectory was cut down after consultation with the County and arborists. If anyone would like to take the wood home, please feel free to do so.

Parish Council Meeting, this Thursday, 7 p.m.

This year, Lenten starts on February 17. Bring your olds palm to the church so Fr. O' can burn them as the ashes for Ash Wednesday.

St. Patrick's Function, Friday, March 6th. Keep this date open on your calendars.

 We have begun to form a Youth Group for teens interested in coming together and be active. First meeting was last Sunday where a few teenagers attended.

Parishioners interested in the May Alaskan Cruise, need to contact Kathy Beckerley now, email: beckerley@comcast.net, or call ☎ 488-0558.

Year of the Priests

Priests around the world are murdered more than we think because of Gospel values. 33 years old Fr. Evaldo Martiolo, Brazil, on 5/31/2009, killed outside his church for speaking out against drug criminals. At his funeral, his bishop said, "His method of evangelization was friendship."

Catholic Myths: "If you have enough money, you can buy annulment."

Annulments are not for sale, also never guaranteed you get one. No one is denied their right to petition for an annulment because of their inability to pay requested fee. No one is granted an annulment, rich or poor, unless it is proven that something prevented it from being the sacramental covenant God intended it to be.
