Gospel: John 14:23-29

There is triune talk here in Jesus' explaining of what is about to happen, which is his departure, but I will not leave them alone. As Jesus was sent by the Father so now the advocate, the Holy Spirit will be sent in Jesus' name. Therefore this Holy Spirit will represent the Son as the Son represented the Father on this earth. The Son who is God's word, it is in the Spirit that his teachings will be preserved.

From the Pew:

St. Cecilia & St. Mary's parishioners and Fr. O'Sullivan are on the Alaskan Cruise next two weeks. Fr. Joe Richard will celebrate Masses on Sundays, May 16th and May 23rd while Fr. O'Sullivan is away. No Masses during weekdays. Fr. O' is grateful to Fr. Joe for his assistance.

Next week, May 16th, 2nd Collection is for the Archdiocese's Catholic Communication Campaign.

This week, 2nd Collection at St. Cecilia's is for the Fountain Ground-Breaking.

May crowning of Mary, today, at St. Mary's.

Please continue to pray for our parishioners who are sick: Roy Winchester and Mary Ann Kolanoski.

Kids Night, Saturday, May 15th at St. Cecilia's parish hall. Showing movie "Nim's Island" with more funs and games. Call Margaret 488-0122. All are welcome.

Congratulations to Grace Farley, great-grandmother to Sophia Grace Silva, 8 lb. 11 oz. She was born on April 30th, the same day as Grace's wedding anniversary.

Congratulations to Joe Walsh, who was awarded the Martin Luther King, Jr. Humanitarian Award by the Marin County Human Rights Commission, for his dedication to supporting quality of life in Marin.

Mike & Francine Cunnie's son last week won the National Rugby Championship playing for Berkeley, California. Congratulations!

St. Cecilia Golf Tournament and Dinner, Friday, June 11th, at San Geronimo Golf Course. Plan to support this event as this is our bread-and-butter fundraiser. Parishioners should plan to attend the dinner and invite your friends and families. For reservation and raffle tickets, contact Ginny 488-9694.

Religious Faith comes through the heart to the head. It causes sinners to repent, the proud to humble themselves and the powerful to bow to a higher authority. From clay footed mortals it makes zealots, saints and martyrs.
