Gospel: Luke 9:51-62

Samarians and Judeans hated and despised each other on religious principles. You would think Jesus would stand by the Jews since he himself was Jewish, but he didn't. He knew the Samarians were decent and good people and in the name of religion he would cause them no harm.

From the Pew:

Fiscal Year 2009-2010 is drawing to close. In July, the parish finance committee will meet and examine how we did financially this fiscal year. Suggestions and recommendations will be published in the bulletin. For the Archbishop's Annual Appeal (AAA), we mailed out the amount to the diocese before June 30th. We would like to thank all the donors from both parishes for their support. We encourage our parishioners to continue giving to the AAA. The fund will be ear-marked to pay for next year's assessments.

Congratulations to Charlotte Olson and her family.

She received her Sacrament of Baptism last Saturday at St. Cecilia's. We welcome her into the Catholic faith and our parish communities.

Last Sunday, Francis, a photographer from Catholic San Francisco visited St. Mary's during Mass. This is the first of the 7 mission churches Francis will be visiting. Check the upcoming issues of the paper. Visit <http://www.catholic-sf.org/> for the online editions (digital paper).

Today, St. Mary's Annual Family Picnic at Samuel Taylor Park, after 11:15 Mass.

Novena in honor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel, Thur. July 8th – Fri. July 16th, 7:30 p.m. Fr. O'Sullivan, celebrant. Carmelite Monastery, 530 Blackstone Drive, San Rafael.

The missal we use at our Masses is undergoing revision in the Vatican over the past 3 years. This is now about to be completed late summer 2010. Expect some changes in the new missal. Not many changes but some when the revision is completed.

This Tuesday, June 29th, a Mass marking the conclusion of the Year for Priests, at St. Sebastian Church, 373 Bon Air Road, Greenbrae, begins 5:30 p.m. All are invited. A reception in the parish hall will follow. Please RSVP for the reception at 456-7820.
