Gospel: Luke 12:32-48

Luke continues his theology of focusing on Heaven as well as this world. Having a balance to life is necessary to good health. Work, play, rest. Luke being a doctor understood well that in order to be truly healthy and whole, one has to look after the body, mind and soul. To neglect one affects the whole.

Congratulations to Alice Hope Lafranchi, great granddaughter of Mary Lafranchi, baptized at St. Mary's last Sunday. As Father jokingly said during the baptism, between the Lafranchi Family at St. Mary's and the deRutte Family at St. Cecilia's, the parish will need a new Baptismal book soon.

Thanks to Liz and Frank Bourne, hosting the Garden Luncheon today at their home in Nicasio. This is a fund raising event for St. Mary's Church. Thank you to all who support the event.

Fr. O'Sullivan will be visiting his family in Ireland during the month of September. This year there will be no resident priest during this time. A visiting priest will be here to celebrate Sunday Masses.

While Fr. O' is away, if any parishioners can volunteer watering the garden at St. Cecilia's. Let Fr. O' know. Call 488-9799.

The Parish Directory is to be finalized for print. Any update and changes, let Fr. O' know, or e-mail: stcecilia.lagunitas@yahoo.com or stmary.nicasio@yahoo.com.

Augustine Pham brought back a replica of the Shroud of Turin from Italy during her pilgrimage to the Shroud exhibition this year. If any parishioner would like to have the cloth framed, Fr. O' will have it placed in the church after it is framed. Contact Fr. O' if anyone would like to do so.
