Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

Only one, the stranger returned gratitude. Gratitude is important. It makes us want to give something back. Many are willing to avail of the generosity of others, but not all are as willing to give something back.

Installation of St. Cecilia's Fountain, August 22, 2010

Incorporated symbolisms from 6 world religions, St. Cecilia's Fountain is possibly the only ecumenical fountain in the world

First to turn on the fountain after blessing

From the Pew:

This month, time for the October Count. It is a means for the Archdiocese to measure parish attendance. The statistics are used in reporting to Rome & for use in the Catholic's Kenedy Directory. St. Cecilia's & St. Mary's parishioners, come & be counted.

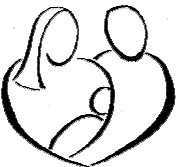

St. Cecilia's Annual Rummage Sale is the weekend of Oct. 30th & 31st. Denise Bohman is asking for help to organize the event. If you want to donate or to volunteer your time, contact Denise at 488-1246.

2nd Collections next week, St. Cecilia - tree trimming; St. Mary - Sanctuary lights.

A railing to improve safety is installed next to Our Lady's statue at St. Cecilia's. Thank you to Paul Conley for his donation covering the cost of the installation.

Parish trip to Death Valley, February 2011. Exact dates is to be set this week. Here are the info: "Travel down by car or van. See a beautiful display of a desert carpeted with wildflowers like you have never seen before. Visit Scotty's Castle, the Raceway where stones bigger than a house mysteriously move, visit ghost towns, mines and hike the colorful canyons. Death Valley is famous for its spectacular, spring wildflower displays. Under perfect conditions the desert fill with a sea of gold, purple, pink or white flowers. Rates at Furnace Creek Ranch or Stovepipes Wells are about $100 per night." For those who are interested to go, we need you to send in your deposit of $150 (make check payable to "St. Cecilia's Church"), required for booking hotel. Contact Margaret Farley for reservations, 488-0122.

October – Sanctity of Life A woman is told by pro-choice woman that abortion is none of your business, nor anyone else's. She replied, "This is not a women's issue, it is a human issue and the ramifications affect women, men, and child."

Discovery of America Saint Brendan may have been the one to discover America — way before Christopher Columbus set sail for the Orient. St. Brendan was the founder of many monasteries in Ireland, including the great one at Clonfert where he lies buried. The legend involves a journey in the 6th century, that he set out from Dingle Bay with a crew of a dozen men in a curragh. Returned after 7 years, he had many fascinating stories about his adventures. The voyage was recreated in recent times. Even though Columbus wasn't the first, his discovery is rightly regarded as the most historically important, and will continue to be, because Columbus inaugurated permanent large scale two-way commerce between the Old World and the New. Happy Columbus Day.
