Gospel: Matthew 5 : 13 – 16

Jesus picks natural elements to show why they exist. Once they lose their purpose and lose their meaning, they are thrown out. Likewise with Christianity, its purpose is not for political gain, or a means to financial accumulation, or status quo. It is to help us love God & neighbor and to understand His Will..

The pipe of the rectory and the hall leaked and water was getting accumulated in the boiler room. It was fortunate that Denise discovered the problem before it got worse. Many thanks to Peter, Ginny, and Aidan for their help and getting the plumber in to fix the problem. Also, a special thanks to Mark Parnow, fixing the damage on the rectory backdoor wood frame, which got chewed up by a German Shepherd .

SAVE-THE-DATE postcards: Friday, May 20th for 2011 St. Cecilia's Golf Tournament , were mailed to parishioners and friends. Mark your calendar for the event.

Evangelization is our pastoral activity for Year 2011: How to invite people into our community who might be looking for a faith community. What can we all do to be active as inviters in events we do throughout the year.

St. Cecilia's & St. Mary's will be cooking & serving meals for homeless women at Christ Lutheran Church in Fairfax on Wednesday, February 16th. To help, contact Cia Donahue, phone: 488-0337, e-mail: cpdonahue@comcast.net. A report from Cia on the meal they served on January 19th: "An inside view of the shelter. There were 17 women (19 for dinner, including staff). So difficult for some of the women. The volunteers from the parish were: Maureen Healy O'Sullivan, chef of the meatloaf; Cia cooked scalloped potatoes & soup; Pat Parnow made the salad; Denise Bohman made the cookies. It's really appreciated by the women. There are some sad cases! We are so fortunate."
