Gospel: Matthew 5 : 38 – 48

The Old Testament, Book of Leviticus, says "You must love your neighbor as yourself." But it is a command restricted to fellow Israelites. Jesus broadened it to everyone, Gentiles as well as Jews, enemies as well as friends, upright as well as sinners, Romans as well as Israelites, good as well as bad. Why? Because this is who God is. He loves unconditionally.

TEST YOUR CATHOLIC KNOWLEDGE:

Catholic just war doctrine teaches

- A. all's fair in love and war.
- B. it is legitimate to deliberately target civilians if that's what it takes to win.
- C. the ends justify the means.
- D. the Church and human reason both assert the permanent validity of the moral law during armed conflict. "The mere fact that war has regrettably broken out does not mean that everything becomes licit between the warring parties.

Last week's catechetical question's correct answer: E. All of the above
