John 2 : 13 - 25

The most important building in all of Judaism was the Temple, the holy of holies where Yahweh dwelt. Herod the Great began remodeling the Temple in 20 B.C. and it was not completed until early 60's A.D. Fifteen years later it would be completely destroyed by the Romans. All that is left today is the Wailing Wall. Every Jew is expected to visit the Temple once in their lifetime, so we have Jesus at the Feast of the Passover visiting the Temple, fulfilling the law.
