John 12 : 20 - 33

For many people we have no say or choice over death. Old age, diseases, tragedies decide the outcome of life. But Jesus did have a choice. By choosing Jerusalem, he accepted immanent death. Why would someone do this at 33 years of age. Maybe it has to do with the knowledge of eternal life.

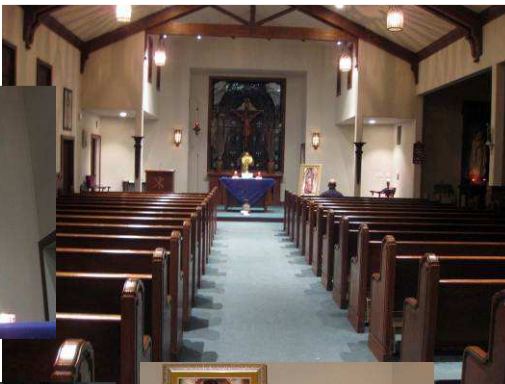

For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Romans 6:23

Vatican News

February 14th, Pope Benedict XVI added 21 new Cardinals to the consistory; the rite has been revised and simplified recently to avoid any impression that becoming a cardinal is a sacrament like ordination. Red remains the color to remind them they are willing to give up their lives by the shedding of their blood for God and the Church. Pope Benedict XVI has created 84 Cardinals. The total number today in the church is 213. Usually one is a bishop before entering the College of Cardinals. The Jesuits promise not to strive for promotion in the church, so it is very rare a Jesuit becomes a cardinal.

There is a separation of church and state, a good thing but there is also a separation of state and church, equally a good thing.
