Mark 14 : 12 - 26

The old covenant of Yahweh with Israel was sealed with blood, the blood of animals. The temple in Jerusalem was a sacrificial of sacrifices to Yahweh; the new covenant likewise will take place in Jerusalem. It too will be sealed with blood, the crucified body of Christ. From this Jesus established a new covenant with the Eucharist as the new bond between God and His people.

Universal Church

There has been some reaction to Vatican's call to reform the LCWR, Leadership Conference of Women Religious, stunned or it's about time. The majority of Catholics hold great respect for sisters and nuns for the astounding work these women have done for the church. Some Catholics point to the Vatican and say it's time to get this house in order. The LCWR represents 80% of women religious in the U.S. The Vatican is not investigating religious communities as Dominicans or Sisters of the Poor, etc., but the LCWR. Their stated concern is serious doctrinal issues, dissent from Church teachings, Christological issues, Feminism, and a losing sight of the Charisma that is rooted to their consecrated life. The LCWR said it will conduct its meeting with the Vatican in an atmosphere of prayer, contemplation and dialogue.
