Most Rev. Salvatore Cordileone will be the 9th Archbishop of San Francisco, when he is appointed on October 4, 2012, Feast Day of St. Francis of Assisi. He was born in San Diego, graduated from University of San Diego, degree in Philosophy, doctorate from Rome in Canon Law. He speaks fluent Spanish and has strong supportive views for immigrants. His father was born in San Francisco, and has many connections in San Francisco.

For varied reasons some people are disillusioned with the church today. Disillusioned means quite literally to have illusions stripped away. But sometimes this is a good thing, because we face realities in a more honest way.

This year marks the 30th Anniversary of the Vietnam Memorial Wall in Washington, D.C.

Archdiocese of Philadelphia. Four of the six priests have been returned to ministry after unsubstantiated allegations were made against them.
