John 6 : 51 -58

Every year after Pentecost, the church spends six weeks on Jesus as the Bread of Life, specifying that only God can satisfy our deepest hungers. Flesh and blood is a Hebrew idiom for the whole person. So when John uses this idiom for Eucharist, he is saying the whole person of Christ is present at this meal.

Thank you to Peter deRutte for cleaning out debris around emergency shelter.

Olympics

An amazing event. 10,500 athletes from 204 countries participated. The founder of the modern games was a Jesuit educated French aristocrat who saw sports as a means elevating the human spirit morally and socially, and build peace amongst nations. The ancient Greece games was preceded by a 40 day truce between rival cities to allow people to be at the games. The Catholic Church had 190 chaplains at the games available to athletes, 25,000 journalists, technicians and ground staffs.

Check your Olympic knowledge. How old is the oldest athlete in the Olympics 2012? [34, 46, 71]

Answer: 71. Equestrian Dressage, Japan.

The five great cities of the Biblical world: Damascus, Ephesus, Athens, Jerusalem, and Rome.
