John 6 : 60 –69

For the past six weeks, we have been reading Christ as the Bread of Life; today this concludes this chapter in Christ's life. Masses do not accept his teachings on Eucharist and will have nothing more to do with him. The twelve remain. The obvious question is asked, "Are you going to leave too?" Out of which Peter makes his profession of Faith. Big crowds did not matter to Christ. What did matter to him was the authenticity and sincerity of those who stayed.

Which human being has been the subject of most paintings by the greatest masters?

Answer: Our Lady

+ This is the 800th Anniversary of a great saint in Catholicism, St. Clare of Assisi, who founded the Poor Clare's, now with cloistered communities throughout the world, including the bay area. Their lives dedicated to prayer, work, poverty and community. She died in Assisi, August 11, 1253, Canonized 1255 by Pope Alexander IV.

National News. The United States pronounced to the World Freedom of thought, conscience and religion, especially to dictatorships and communists. So why is it not practicing what it preaches at home where the United States Government now threatens religious liberty and individual conscience on its own citizens.
