John 2 : 1 - 11

Jesus does a nice thing by doing a kind deed for a wedding couple who had not planned well (to look after their guests). But Jesus we are told did it at the behest, the urging of Mary to do something, and he did. We can do more of this in our culture. Ask people to do good things for others, don't think it is just going to happen. Sometimes it helps to be asked.

Half of the world's population now lives in urban areas, and by 2050's ¾ will dwell in urban populations. Cities arose around 12,000 years ago but rural life dominated until 19th century. Yet as attractive city life is for people, many today contend with alienation, isolation, crime, and struggle with cynicism and despair compared to people living in rural areas.

The Church stand on gun control remans as it has always been by the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops:

- A. Control of the sale of firearms
- B. Restrict public access to deadly weapons
- C. Call for sensible restrictions on certain weapons

This has been the Church's stand for decades.
