John 13:31-35

As unusual this may seem to us Christ considers his execution, his ultimate sacrifice of offering his life up as the Father's will is also through this cup of suffering giving glory to God. Most 21st Century citizens see no glory in any kind of suffering at all. Yet Christ differed. "Now is the Son of Man glorified and God is glorified in Him."

Papal News

Pope Francis 1st has told the Curia and the heads of Vatican offices that all heads of Vatican posts are provisional, meaning can be re-assigned. He also told the Curia that careerism in the church is spiritual worldiness, a kind of vanity that reduces spirituality to a worldly thing. The offices are there for services to the body of Christ, not self vanity.

National News

Whatever our view on immigration issues, the sad fact is 2,000 migrants have died in the Arizona desert mostly from lack of water, many children. Christian groups install water stations in the desert on humanitarian grounds. If caught they face criminal charges for assisting illegal immigrants. These Christian activists say "their faith demands action not sentiments" and they are willing to pay the price.
