John 20 : 19 - 23

The great prayer Jesus made during the last supper has three parts to it:

- Jesus prays for himself
- Jesus prays for his disciples
- Jesus prays for the community of the future, who will believe in him.

We are the future community and it is interesting to note he already prayed for us.

Catholic Social Justice

Getting out of Poverty is a lot harder than one realizes. A single mother needs only one slip, ie. a child gets sick, work hours reduced, rent increases, oil increases, etc. and she could be in fiscal problems. The Census Bureau recently reported, a quarter of all jobs in America pay below the poverty line for a family of four. Technology places a premium on high skilled labor. Globalization has weakened US workers to do work. Today, students are excluded from higher education because they cannot pay tuition. Until the National debt is dealt with, poverty is unlikely to ease. Business, market-driven growth jobs is what takes people out of poverty not Government. Nearly half of homeless population is employed.
