John 16 : 12 - 15

The fountain we have at St. Cecilia theologically symbolizes the Trinity. The dove on top of the world represents the Holy Spirit. The water flowing from the dove down represents Christ. Through Baptismal waters we are received into his life, and at night the lighting emanates the whole fountain representing the Father, omnipotent almighty, alpha and omega.

From the Pew:

Next Sunday, June 2nd, one Mass 10 a.m. at St. Cecilia's, for both communities from St. Cecilia & St. Mary, followed by lunch to honor longtime parishioner, Marie Dhority's unique presence with us all these years. (No 9:30 a.m. or 11:15 Mass that day.)

Social Justice: Parishioners to reflect on issues during the week, and bring forth the items at the end of Mass. This is to share thoughts, and encourage discussions after Mass. Respect each other's opinions.

SGV Community BBQ, Mon, June 3rd, 5 p.m. at the SGVCC. Edie Robinson Community Service Awards will be announced. Bring a dish/drink to share. All are welcome.

St. Cecilia & St. Mary's Youth Group will be going on a rafting trip in the summer organized by Margaret Farley. They will be fund-raising to subsidize the trip expenses.

2nd Collections this week is the Archdiocese's Catholic Communication Campaign.

Most Catholics are interested in the bible, God's word. Some view the Bible as a rule book, a guide manual for life that answers all of life's questions and problems. Others view the Bible as God's Word, but that we have to use our own powers of reason to discern the meaning of these words. Catholic Biblicity is informed by archaeology, historical data, cultural studies, and analysis of Greek, Hebrew, and Aramaic texts.

Parish Comment

A good tool to know if Sunday sermons are offering a clear message is parishioners should be able to write down in one sentence a summary of what they heard.
