What has brought Roman Catholics together as a Faith community from the beginning is the Eucharist. It remains true to our time. The Church has never lost sight in its 2000 years history the command to "Do This in Memory of Me".

Thank you, Marie. Wish you well in your new home.

Archbishop Oscar Romero, the process to beatify and canonize him is moving along. It is 33 years since he was murdered in San Salvador. Pope Francis 1st said it is time for a final verdict. Archbishop Romero was a staunch defender for the poor and a vocal critic of human right violations. The Congregation for Saints Causes is presently reviewing all his letters and writings to ensure they are free of doctrinal errors and interviewing people who knew him well.
