Luke 7 : 11 - 17

It would seem that some people witnessed Resurrection as this story unfolds long before Christ's Resurrection. This young man, dead to this world, processing to the cemetery, but out of compassion for his mother, now all alone, her son's life was restored to her. Resurrection is Life.

A few birthdays this past week, Happy Birthdays to Pat Donahue, Barney Felling, Kathy Beckerley.

Clericalism is a word associated with the Catholic Priesthood. In Europe its name became known with clerics interfering in secular politics, intrusion into secular affairs. But today the challenge is the secularist campaign to drive religion out of the public square, and forcing believers to submit to laws that violate their religious and moral convictions. The laity have a right to be engaged in temporal affairs and in doing so standing up for God's will.

To all the volunteers: Rob Hoge, Aidan O'Sullivan, Carol & Steve Stromberg, James Slattery, Paul Conley, Ginny Kerbs Bonnie deRutte, Kathleen Mullen, Pat & Cia Donahue who worked on the garden cleanup at St. Cecilia's last Saturday. This is an enormous help. THANK YOU.
