Luke 14 : 1, 7 - 14

In this life we select our friends and companions and spend time and dine together. But in the next life there is no social or class distinctions. Rich and poor, powerful – powerless, atheist – religious, we all will live in harmony and community. We will invite each other to our tables.

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time

...when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the
lame, the blind;
blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you.
For you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.

Lk 14:1, 7-14

Steve & Carolyn Stromberg sent in this photo praising Ryan for his car wash service. Ryan is already fund-raising for his next parish youth trip.
