John 11 : 1 - 45

This is a story all human beings experience, the passing and mourning of loved ones who precede us in death. John the Evangelist makes it perfectly clear, Jesus is the master over life and death.

Thanks to all the volunteers
coming to the St. Mary's Annual Spring Cleaning

Pope Francis: Can you imagine a church without nuns. No nuns in hospitals, in missions, in schools, in charitable institutions, in cloisters. This is unthinkable.

We think of martyrs as an era from the past, but the blood of martyrs is still very much with us today where men and women lay down their lives for the truths of the Gospel and love of neighbor.

In 2013, 19 priests were murdered, 1 religious sister, 2 lay workers, 12 other priests have been kidnapped and whereabouts remain unknown.

Latin America has the highest number of deaths. The Church was founded on the blood of martyrs beginning with the Apostles.

Did you know? 3 billion cigarette butts are scattered throughout the bay area each year, causing much environment damage to clear water, clean air and habitats.
