What does Eucharist mean to you? Deanery 6 & 7 are collecting opinions to this subject from our Catholic communities in Marin County. We would like to know what you think. If you know of any Catholics who might not belong to any church, ask them to share their opinions too. Send your feedback to Fr. O'Sullivan or email stcecilia.lagunitas@yahoo.com.

St. Mary's Capital Campaign. In preparation for the 2017 150th Celebration of the dedication of St. Mary in 1867. Our goal is to raise sufficient fund and to complete the painting and restoration of our historic St. Mary Church. This is a project that would involve all our parishioners, friends as well as local communities. Share your expertise & suggestions.

Knights of Columbus Part 2 of 3

1820 the Catholic population of America was a modest 120,000. Over the next half century it grew to 2.7 million. By 1900, 12 million American Catholics. Today 60 million Catholics in the U.S. 1842 Protestant ministers declared Catholic principles to be subversive of civil liberties. So to fight for Catholic religious liberty rights, the Knights were founded, so Catholics could have a place in America. They used the name Columbus reminding bigots it was a Catholic who discovered America, and used Knights for loyalty to the church against anti-Catholic and anti-Irish sentiments.
