John 1 : 1 – 18

Unto us a child is born, a son given to us where we can rest our burdens upon his shoulders. They name him Prince of Peace, Wonder-Counselor, whose dominion eternally reigns. All Peace, Joys, and Blessings come from him. All Glory belongs to him forever and ever. Without him we are nothing.

To all our wonderful parishioners and friends, may his Spirit reign in our hearts and minds, his Blessings be with us this Christmas and always.

*W*ishing all of our parishioners, young and old, close or far, a happy and joyous Christmas and the peace that flows from His eternal spirit. We have much to be thankful for and much to hope for.

Did you know?
The U.S. is 85% Christian and 96% of Americans celebrate Christmas.

I sought to hear the voice of God and climbed the topmost steeple. But God declared, Go down again – I dwell among the people.
