Mark 1 : 21 – 28

In Mark's Gospel, you will find it is unclean spirits, demonic realities who recognize Jesus as the Son of God. It is not the apostles or human beings who recognize who Jesus is. It will not be until the resurrection they recognize his Divinity.

Who was Padre Pio?

A Capuchin priest, served at San Giovanni Rotondo Monastery, Italy's Adriatic coast. Five years after ordination he received the stigmata. He discouraged public adoration of this and so wore gloves. 5 a.m. Mass only time he removed his gloves. Curiosity seekers flocked to 5 a.m. Mass to see his wounds. Many miracles attributed to Padre Pio and stories of bilocation and mysterious aroma's emanating from his presence or lack of his presence. 5,000 letters a month he received, 100,000's visitors each year. He died in 1968, canonized in 2002.

Our parish's Padre Pio Devotion Group, Mass at St. Cecilia's, last Saturday, 10 a.m.

Catholic Relief Agencies won a legal victory recently where they do not have to ship food on U.S. ships which costs three times more than shipping them on foreign vessels.

Did you know? Most Catholics think the Pope only canonize Roman Catholics. Not so, they have also canonized Eastern Orthodox Faiths, recently Saint Kuriakose Chavara of the Syrian-Malabar Rite.
