400 million Bible Museum begins in Washington DC. 430,000 square feet, 8 stories high. First of its kind in the world. Ecumenical, Protestant, Catholic, Orthodox, even Judaism a part of the museum exhibits, artifacts, manuscripts, books. 40 thousand artifacts will be on display. The museum is scheduled to open 2017.

A survey shows many young people who receive first communion won't return to CCD classes until it's time for confirmation, if they return at all. Teachers say, "This is the time we lose them." The reasons for this are, sports, weekend activities and single parents spent and tired after a hard week at work responsibilities. Grandparents may have a special role here to help parents.
