Luke 24:35 - 48

This is the second appearance by Jesus, the Emmaus men. From this event we can see Jesus had followers not just from Galilee, but also Judea, Samaria and outside Israel. We are never told how large his following was, but if the citizen of Jerusalem greeted him at the gate and the Roman garrison took note of his activities, it is fair to say, it had to be substantial.

Parish Perspective Since we are reading a book on Palestine, the recent elections in Israel did not support hope. Netanyahu shouting the Arab's are voting who have a right to vote is racist by any rationale. The incursion by Israel into the West Bank of more and more settlements means Israel is no longer interested in a two state solution, but one Israel State. The West Bank will eventually end as Gaza is today, a Palestinian People imprisoned in their own land.
