John 6 : 51 - 58

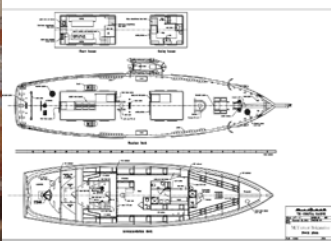

Here we are getting into the Catholic theology on the Eucharist. Flesh and blood is an idiom for the whole person, so not symbolic by any means. In the Lord's Supper, we are mentally fed by his word (God's word) and we are fed by the divine presence of our Lord.

Peace with Iran - Vatican View (Part 1 of 2)

Peace based on right relationships and mutually assured trust is a door to peace. A just peace includes right relationships, restoration, reconciliation, reintegration, acknowledgement of harms done and apologies. This opens the door to authentic dialogue. It requires more than government activities but a broader involvement of people as churches, sports, business opportunities, cultural activities, travel opportunities and educational where what is common amongst us surpasses that of our differences.

Junipero Serra (Part 3 of 5) When Junipero Serra was 15 years old, his parents in abject poverty, they had to make a difficult family decision. They took him to Palma to begin his formal training for the priesthood. Many of Petra's talented boys did likewise; in the hundreds they joined the Order communities. The church offered meaning to their lives, and plenty of works to get done. By this time because of hardships, Junipero Serra had lost most of his aunts, uncles, cousins to diseases. He will now enter a life of literacy, denial, devotion, and evangelism, the Franciscan life.
