Mark 7 : 1 - 23

We have here a lesson in morality. The beauty of our soul leads to the beauty of the world we create. The sickness of the souls leads to the ills of the world we live in. Either way the soul decides how life will be.

Junipero Serra (Part 5 of 15) Junipero Serra donned the Franciscan habit at 17 years of age. His long years of formation had no crisis of faith. He was a born Franciscan. Serra used mortification to discipline himself. He wore a hair shirt, lacerated his flesh with a rope at night. Broken sleep, meager rations, and fastings did not help his health. At ordination 1737, he changed his name Miguel to Junipero, best friend to St. Francis. He would remain in Palma for 17 years as a Professor of Philosophy. A year after ordination, he was given the right to preach.
