Luke 5 : 1 - 11

Jesus sometimes reveals his power over Mother Nature. All creation is under my authority both in the heavens and the earth below, the sea and all within it, to the birds in the skies. All creation gives glory to me. This story demonstrates the power of the Son of God.

The Collapse of Syria (Part 2) Dura-Europos was a pluralistic city of diversity with religions dedicated to Roman gods, Greek, Sumerian, Parthian, Palmyrene, Judean, and Christian. They spoke eleven languages in this city. It is in contrast to the intolerant, unwelcome ISIS's ideologically strict regime. Syria is where the first disciples were called Christians and where St. Paul escaped from prison.

Year of Peace "God is not indifferent". The call is to ask us why injustices occur and how are we called to respond. There are 3 billion people who live in poverty in our world. The Gospel calls us to feed the hungry; visit the sick, prisoners; shelter the homeless.
