John 16 : 37 - 39

It is not that Jesus never spoke about the Trinity but the apostles never understood what he said. As much as we cannot quite grasp Trinity, but the words of Christ remain: I and the Father are one. I return to my Heavenly Father. This is my Beloved Son. I will send the Holy Spirit to you. He will guide you and teach you the truth. Father into your hands, I commend my Spirit.

Pope Francis Each one of you refugees who knock on our doors has the face of God upon you.

[Part 1 of 2] ... Catholic Social Teaching is grounded in four basic principles.

1. The dignity of the human person
2. The common good
3. Subsidiarity (to offer support, services, aid to what's important)
4. Solidarity (to find unity in opinions, interests, purpose, actions.)

There are many good things about the works of the church but the most essential thing is communication with God. That's what all the kneelers, candles, incense, stained glass windows, holy water, stations of the cross, statues, flowers and other things are about – directing our minds and hearts to God.

Did you know? Trinidad is the only country named for the Trinity (a Catholic doctrine).
