Luke 7 : 11 - 17

There are few places in life where tears and all kind of emotions flow, as at funerals. I have seen people inconsolable to screams and physical expression of deep grief, authentic mourning being lived out. It is a drama when witnessed few people remain unmoved when a loved one is taken from us and their spirits handed over to the Lord for eternal care.

Holy Doors have expanded beyond basilica & cathedrals under Pope Francis. Prisons, parish churches, homeless shelters, university Newman centers; St. Stanislaus Church, Modesto for disabled, California Mission Church San Diego de Alcala, Shrines as St. Theresa in Alaska. Never has the church been so open to Holy Doors. Some as in Rome are large ornate and splendid, others look simple, small and ordinary. Holy Doors is truly a Catholic Tradition.
