Year of Mercy – Chaplains. Hospital Chaplains are the face of mercy to the sick, always relevant, applicable in every age. Not just offering sacraments & prayers, they provide comfort to patients and families, even hospital staff. Chaplains deal with people in difficult times and quite often whose earthly life is coming to an end. Chaplains speak of Mercy as

- Mercy is bringing mercy into the moment
- Mercy is not sympathy but empathy
- Mercy is being present
- Mercy is a touch, listening, caring
- Mercy is a kind word
- Mercy is the Gospel
