Pope Francis We are in need of the elderly to inspire the young with the dreams they succeeded in life.

Gun Violence (Part 1 of 2) The gun violence in the U.S. is so shocking many nations can't believe what's happening here. The N.R.A. went from a hunting gun organization to today an ardent defender of the Second Amendment Rights. It has resisted any changes to regulations on gun sales. The Catholic Church besides some formal statements has had no pastoral letter on gun control. The public violence of N.Y. alone is higher than Ireland, Wales, Northern Ireland, Scotland, England, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Netherlands, Spain, and Luxembourg combined. That is a troubling statistic. These countries must be doing something right.
