Luke 18 : 9 - 14

If there is one place on earth where we should be humble, or at least presumed, it is when we enter our churches, synagogues, mosques and other houses of worship. This Pharisee could not even do that. Little chance he will ever practice humility in his life, not even before God. We have a man here who is in denial that he is one of us, no more special than anyone else, and remains but a creature of God.
