Luke 19 : 1 - 10

Zacchaeus is a chief tax collector. This means he deals with the people who have the most money, i.e. vineyards, ship builders, shops, large estates and farms, etc. He is certainly a man of the world, and by any standards would be hard to convert. Yet Jesus without ever talking to or meeting with him, Zacchaeus had already converted.

Pope Francis elects 3 U.S. Bishops out of 17 new cardinals to the consistency. Archbishop Blaise of Chicago, Archbishop Tobin of Indianapolis, Bishop Farrell of Dallas. Bishop Farrell is a native of Ireland who has a brother Brian also a Bishop. There are now 121 Cardinal Electors to elect the next Pope.

The Church has spent much of this year analyzing the family. The family is founded upon marriage, freely contracted, indissoluble, and the natural primary cell of human society. The interests of the family therefore must be taken into account, economic, social, legal as well as faith and morals. How often do we call our parents; Speak to our siblings; turn off the TV, phones to have time with our spouse. Do we thank God for the gift of my family. Hopefully the business of everyday life does not rob us of family life. Sunday was a day given over to the Lord's day and family. The family in itself is a domestic church where right and wrong, good and bad are taught.

Did you know? Russia has the highest alcoholism in the world.

Next Sunday,
Daylight Saving
ends.
