Luke 20 : 27 - 38

This is one question I won't have to worry about or for that matter all of us in our two communities. Nevertheless a question is a question. I like to think he was married to seven wives therefore all would forever have a special place in his life, as of here this life or the life hereafter.

That I believe. How this is understood or defined in the next life, I'll wait and see.

Thank you, Elina & Mark for hosting the parish picnic at their home last Sunday.

Pope Francis A Christian must write history. Whoever only lives for him/herself does not write history.

Pope Francis now requires for sainthood six medical experts with a two-thirds majority that a miracle has occurred. Previously a simple majority sufficed.

Small progress steps in Saudi Arabia. A small number of women acquire the right to vote (educated). They still seek the rights to drive, and to work and end male guardianship. Islamic clerics are firmly against such changes.
