Pope Francis If we have God's word in our hearts, nothing could deviate us from him.

The Catholic Church foundation is based on four distinguished beliefs: One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic.

Conclusion While other Protestant churches have one or two sacraments, none of them have 7 sacraments. They dropped them from the Faith. They are not of the Apostolic line in ordinations because they separated from Catholicism which is where the Apostolic line rests. They do not hold to the Petrine office (Pope) they have no central authority, not even close as Catholicism has. Vatican City.

Our Sacred Space (Part 12 of 14)

Narthex is a gathering space before entering the church. Parish notices usually here and bulletins. One time unbaptized were not allowed into the church. The narthex is as far as they got. Passing through the narthex we leave behind the secular world and enter Holy, sacramental life.
